

The Weekly Griffin

Mr. Eli
Spring, 2008 Issue 26

Study Island:

Your child has received a user name and password so he/she can practice math concepts from home. Please encourage your child to do this, as it further prepares he/she for the AIMS test.

Student bonus: proof read papers that go home and report it in writing for extra credit! Use your proofreading guides. What can you find in this newsletter?

Some announcements:

These students' artwork have been entered in the Pima County Fair:

Sunflowers

Nick Dixon
Ethan Driver
Malcolm Edgar
Levi Foster
Lily Ghemrawi
Bethany Orth
Eric Pacheco
Rikki Riojas
Amber Romero
Ashley Schneider
Kyle Schneider
Connor Starks

Analogous Colors Weaving

J.J. Borja
Meghan Evans
Cordero Merritt
Mackenzie Rod
Daylon Wallen
Trevor Wells

I can personally attest to the fact that Jacob Estrada and Josh Nelson are also excellent artists.

Summer Camp:

Plunge into summer camp adventure! Registration has begun for children age 3 to entering 6th grade. Camp begins on June 2nd! Contact the school office for information and registration forms.

Math: geometry including identifying angles, calculating perimeter, understanding area etc.

Writing: Putting the six traits together

Reading: Reading strategies including reading ahead, using your imagination as you read, self-questioning etc.

Spelling: school vocabulary

Social Studies: The gold rush.

Science: Plant parts and cycle

Have a terrific week, and thanks for all you do!